

BIG IDEAS

Global and regional conflicts have been a powerful force in shaping our contemporary world and identities. The development of political institutions is influenced by economic, social, ideological, and geographic factors.

Worldviews lead to different perspectives and ideas about developments in Canadian society.

Historical and contemporary injustices challenge the narrative and identity of Canada as an inclusive, multicultural society.

Learning Standards

Curricular Competencies Content Students are expected to be able to do the following: Students are expected to know the following: Use Social Studies inquiry processes and skills to ask questions; gather, government, First Peoples governance, political interpret, and analyze ideas; and communicate findings and decisions institutions, and ideologies Assess the significance of people, places, events, or developments, environmental, political, and economic policies and compare varying perspectives on their significance at particular times Canadian autonomy and places, and from group to group (significance) Canadian identities Assess the justification for competing accounts after investigating points residential schools and other discriminatory policies of contention, reliability of sources, and adequacy of evidence, including and injustices against First Peoples in BC and Canada data (evidence) discriminatory policies and injustices in Canada and Compare and contrast continuities and changes for different groups at the world, including the head tax, the Komagata Maru particular times and places (continuity and change) incident, racial segregation and the destruction of Assess how underlying conditions and the actions of individuals or groups Hogan's Alley, and the internment of Japaneseinfluence events, decisions, or developments, and analyze multiple Canadians consequences (cause and consequence) The Holocaust and the concept of genocide Explain and infer different perspectives on past or present people, places, · advocacy for human rights, including findings and issues, or events by considering prevailing norms, values, worldviews, recommendations of the Truth and Reconciliation and beliefs (perspective) Commission Make reasoned ethical judgments about actions in the past and present, domestic conflicts and co-operation and assess appropriate ways to remember and respond (ethical judgment) international conflicts and co-operation